

Performances for Young People Ticket Sales Policies

Updated 7.1.2021

Thank you for your interest in participating in the University of Georgia Performing Arts Center's Performances for Young People program. This program is designed to expose children age 6 and older in grades K-12 to the performing arts at a young age by facilitating live, in-person attendance experiences. The program's purpose is to inspire the next generation of artists and arts supporters. The costs of these performances are generously subsidized by friends of the Performing Arts Center who share that vision. Parents and guardians are encouraged to exercise personal judgement when determining if programs are appropriate for their children.

Admission to Performances for Young People is $2 for students and $4 for adults. Children must be at least six years old to attend. Large school groups should use the registration form for reservations. Home school groups should contact the box office directly at (706) 542-4400 or in person Monday-Friday, 10:00 am-5:00 pm).

Reservations for performances in the 2021-22 season begin August 2, 2021. This page will be updated with an order form prior to that date.

Home School Ticket Sales Policies

1. In order to allow as many individual home school groups as possible the opportunity to participate, each group is limited to no more than 10 tickets per performance. Each purchase must be linked to the account of a unique individual adult chaperone with valid contact information. Multiple accounts may not be used to exceed ticket limits for the same group or affiliated groups. We reserve the right to cancel any orders and prohibit future participation for groups who exceed, or attempt to exceed, established ticket limits, including orders associated with the same name, e-mail address, billing address, credit card number, group name, or other identifiable information.
2. In order to accommodate as many children and youth as possible, we encourage one adult chaperone to attend per group. However, in cases where attending with more children is not possible, one adult chaperon per student is allowed. Performances for Young People are designed specifically for students K-12, age six and older, and should not be considered a substitute for attending a regular public performance as a family or other non-student group.
3. Tickets will be held at will call under the name of the person who purchased the tickets. A photo ID is required when picking up tickets prior to the performance. The box office opens 45 minutes prior to the start of each performance. All sales are final—no refunds or cancellations.

4. Due to limited capacity in the venues, we regularly turn away many classes and groups who wish to attend because they cannot be accommodated. Because of this, groups who purchase tickets that are not utilized during the performances may be restricted from participating in the future.
5. Please contact the PAC Outreach Coordinator at (706) 542–2634 or PAOutreach@uga.edu with additional questions or concerns.
