ABOUT THE ARTISTS

FRIGG

“Massive groove and energy, powerful virtuosity, beautifully structured and inventive...” These were the words used by Andrew Cronshaw in the esteemed international world music magazine fRoots when reviewing Frigg’s debut album in 2002. Now, as the band celebrates its 25th anniversary, it boasts a resume that is unmatched.

Frigg has captivated audiences worldwide with their fusion of Nordic folk music and various Western folk styles, a sound that the world music media has coined “nordgrass,” referring to the band’s bluegrass influences. Their finely tuned ensemble playing, featuring violins, string instruments, and double bass, combined with their sparkling live energy, has left a lasting impression on listeners across the globe.

Often, people marvel at the band’s ability to leap from Nordic polkas and American roots rhythms to Balkan beats, Celtic nuances, and even classical music realms—all within a single performance, as if multiple bands were sharing the stage!

The band has numerous European tours and countless North American tours under its belt. Many renowned festivals have been part of their extensive tour map, including WOMADelaide, Rainforest World Music Festival, Cambridge Folk Festival, and Telluride Bluegrass Festival. Through television and radio, Frigg has reached millions of viewers and listeners with performances on A Prairie Home Companion and NHK World Japan’s El Mundo program.

Throughout its existence, Frigg has released 13 albums. Notably, three of these have been featured on the Top of the World list by the leading world music magazine Songlines. Additionally, fRoots, SingOut!, and Rhythms have frequently highlighted the band with prominent articles and rave reviews. Frigg’s albums have consistently been at the top of the two largest international world music charts: the World Music Charts Europe and the Transglobal World Music Chart.

The year 2025 marked the beginning of a new era in Frigg’s history, with a new album, lineup, and exciting collaboration projects. To celebrate their anniversary, the band released a new album, launched with release concerts at, among others, the Celtic Connections festival in Glasgow, the Vienna Concert House, the Savoy Theater in Helsinki, and the Lotus Festival in the United States, where the band has a large following. The album release introduced a new six-member lineup, bringing fresh perspectives to Frigg’s already rich musical world.

Frigg will perform new tracks from their recently released albums, Heritage and Dreamscapes, along with a comprehensive selection of cornerstone pieces from their previous eleven albums. Hear the original Frigg energy through classic tracks “RajRajRaj” and “Keidas,” and the surprising turns of today’s favorites “Häkkisen riili” and “Early Bird.” In this concert, you get a perspective on how the Frigg sound has evolved into what it is today!

Why I Give ...

Meet Betsy and Blair Dorminey, who graduated from UGA in 1976. She is a Double Dawg, a lawyer in Athens and a hotelier in Vermont. He is an immigration attorney and works in small town redevelopment through historic properties. They supported the November performance of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony by the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and Chorus.

The PAC brings world-class talent to our little college town and it's a privilege to be able to contribute to this effort. Even the smallest gift brings a sense of belonging. Small drops do mighty oceans make!
